I have known [name of person] for over 5 years. She has been part of the leadership team at [name of parish/group] for 4 years.

[Name] is a very important part of our parish youth ministry as well as the extended parish community. She is passionate about serving within her parish community. She is part of the youth leadership team, and part of the Sacramental programme team preparing children for Confirmation and Communion. [Name] is involved in organising parish youth masses, leading youth group, planning fundraising events and facilitating leadership meetings. She also uses her gifts to design posters for various youth and parish events and maintains the youth Facebook page.

She has a very confident and dedicated leadership style which demonstrates her personality and strengths.

[name] is very committed. She works extremely well in a team and humbly accepts direction and guidance from mentors. She has an excellent rapport with people of all ages and works alongside the parish leadership team with patience and commitment.

I would like to support [name] nomination for the Tu Kahikatea award in the area of Community Life because of her willingness to serve, empower and lead the parish youth at [name of parish]. She is a great role model to our youth.
