October News

Northland Camp: From 8-10 October, young people from Northland took part in a camp at Mangawhai Heads with the theme 'Who Am I'. The ACYM team led a number of activities that focussed on the topic of identity. Along with the various activities, there was also top team games, an opportunity to learn surfing, spiritual art and much more.

Starlight: The young people from North Shore took part in an annual regional talent showcase at Rosmini College. It was great seeing the gifts and talents of the young people ranging from singing, dancing to taekwondo.

World Youth Day Panama pilgrim spiritual preparations: At the October spiritual preparation, participants took part in a labyrinth prayer where they focussed on the challenges they needed to let go of as they prepare for pilgrimage.

Emmaus: At our last session for Emmaus which is a program for new and current leaders, participants reflected on their Emmaus journeys. Together we celebrated their growth as leaders and the ACYM team is looking forward to seeing them grow further both spiritually and in their leadership roles.

Diocesan Youth Mass: The October Diocesan Youth Mass was hosted by the Emmaus participants with the theme 'Called To Follow'. Msgr David Tonks celebrated Mass and Fr Larry Rustia led us in a 'Walk through the Mass' where he explained what the different parts of the Mass meant. The Emmaus participants also received a blessing following Holy Communion.
